COMING ATTRACTIONS

Summer - July 29, 30 and August 5,6,7

Bathroom Humor, written by Billy Van Zandt and Jane Milmore, is a hilarious farce that takes place entirely within a second-floor bathroom at a house playing host to an increasingly wild office party. What better place for gossip and hanky panky, where we learn of the wild and crazy things going on at the party. Characters come and go throughout, spilling their indiscretions and dirty little secrets to the audience. As we quickly learn in the viewing, nobody is really the person they claim to be. It all starts with slender, sleek, and saucy Laura, and chunky, insecure Peg talking about the other people coming to the party, the latest in gossip. Then Babette shows up. It's then that the shallowness of the beautiful people is revealed for all it is.

Fall - November 11,12,13,18,19,20

Winner of the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award for Best Musical, 1945-1946 and The Tony Award for Best Revival of a Musical in 1994, Carousel was Richard Rodgers' favorite musical. In this second collaboration with Oscar Hammerstein are some of their most beloved songs including "If I Loved You," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "June is Bustin' Out All Over," and the moving "Soliloquy." The story of carnival barker, Billy Bigelow, and mill worker, Julie Jordan, and their difficult love, this show will move you to laugh and to cry.

Director's Note:

Thank you for joining us for our spring production of the 2016 season here at The Village Players. Drinking Habits will certainly offer up a healthy dose of laughter. The actors have spent the winter months rehearsing, learning lines, and wearing habits, and are ready to jump into spring with all of you!

Directing a show is always a fun challenge and one I had not taken on since my early twenties. Working with this cast has been a great adventure, and I'm excited to share it with everyone. To my mentors here at The Village Players, I thank you for believing in me again and again. To the cast, thank you for your trust and sense of humor.

Now, take yourself to the early 1960s in a small but thriving convent built by an "orchard" where the ladies of perpetual sewing reside.

Enjoy the show!
