Boeing-Boeing Cast Comes Together For First Time

by Joshua Spaulding

Before the show was even on our stage, Boeing-Boeing was bringing the laughs. The cast of the Village Players summer show, written by French playwright Marc Camoletti, gathered at the home of director Russ Ellis for the first table read of the script and left with smiles on their faces after a few hours filled with laughter.

The show focuses on Bernard, a bachelor who is balancing engagements with three different stewardesses, all of whom are completely unaware of each other. Bernard's friend Robert comes to visit and he soon finds that the newer, faster Boeing jets are throwing off his carefully-planned schedule. Bernard's longtime housekeeper Berthe also finds herself in the middle of his unusual situation.

In casting the show, Ellis went with a group that brings tons of experience to the stage. Bernard is being portrayed by Rick Tessari, who brought tons of laughs to his cross-dressing role in Leading Ladies just a few short years ago and was last on stage in the production of the musical Gypsy. His best friend, Robert, will be portrayed by Danny Catalano, who most recently had a starring turn as Christopher Wren in the spring production of The Mousetrap and has also been part of the last few musicals. The one Village Players newcomer in the show is Jen Smith, who will be playing the part of Berthe, making her debut with the group.

The three stewardesses who are simultaneously engaged to Robert are from three separate countries. Gabriella hails from Italy, Gloria hails from the United States and Gretchen is from Germany.

The three actresses chosen to portray the fiancées all come to the stage with plenty of experience on the Village Players stage. Gabriella is portrayed by Toni Dingley, who was most recently on stage as part of the musical production of Gypsy in the fall of 2012. Gloria will be portrayed by Tori Neal, who had a memorable turn as Electra in 2012's Gypsy and was most recently on stage in last spring's Death and Taxes as town secretary Lydia. The third fiancée, Gretchen, will be portrayed by Lisa Penny, who was most recently on the Village Players Stage as Fruma Sarah in the fall 2013 production of Fiddler on the Roof.

Ellis will welcome his brother, Pete Ellis, as assistant director, while Village Players veteran Bob Tuttle is serving as the producer. Matt Johnson will once again man the light booth, while Gordon Brooks will be helping coach dialect. Joshua Spaulding is the stage manager, Jay Sydow is designing the set, Shelia Feeney Beninati is decorating the set and Deb Jones is handling costumes. Emily Marsh is designing the poster and Sandra Ellis will be the house manager.

Boeing-Boeing will be opening on Friday, July 24, and will continue on Saturday, July 25, Friday, July 31, and Saturday, Aug. 1, all at 8 p.m. The final performance will be a matinee on Sunday, Aug. 2, at 2 p.m. Tickets will be available at village-players.com or at Black's Paper and Gifts in downtown Wolfeboro in early June.

Come share in the laughter this summer with Boeing-Boeing.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

This is from our very first summer production in 1988, Barefoot in the Park. Prior to this we had produced only one show in spring and one in fall. Here we have Jennifer Ganem in the back, Connie Ruggieri aghast, and Wayne Gehman looking accusatory.

Superman is up for June 19th and 20th at 8pm. Starring the great Christopher Reeve, this film was nominated for three Academy Awards. Other favorites in this film are Marlon Brando as Jor-El, Gene Hackman as villain Lex Luthor, Jackie Cooper as editor Perry White, Glen Ford as Pa Kent, and Margot Kidder as love interest Lois Lane.

Since the distant Planet Krypton is about to destroy itself, scientist, Jor-El, decides to put his infant son in a rocket and send him to planet earth to save the child and the Kryptonian race. The baby is found and raised by an elderly farm couple, Ma and Pa Kent. As he grows and experiences his great powers, he learns that they must be used only for good. As an adult, mild-mannered Clark Kent travels to the great city of Metropolis, becoming a reporter for The Daily Planet and The Man of Steel stunning the city with his amazing feats. He is pitted against the evil Lex Luthor, the world's greatest criminal mind.

On the 17th and 18th of July we bring you Jurassic Park, directed by Stephen Spielberg. This film won three Academy Awards as well as the Saturn Award for the best science fiction film of 1993. In addition it won many other awards, particularly for its amazing special effects.

Two paleontologists, several other scientists, and the owner's two grandchildren are invited to tour Jurassic Park An island full of living dinosaurs created by cloning. But the dinosaurs escape their enclosures and begin hunting the visitors who must find a way to get off the island. This film is sponsored by Tangles Salon, Wolfeboro, NH.

And, of course, our own Mr. Movies, Jim Adams, will give his usual trivia-filled chat about each movie before it begins. Tickets are only $5 and are available on line at www.village-players.com as well as at the door. You can buy popcorn, candy and water in the side room.

Want To Get Involved?

by Carol Bense

Have you thought about being more involved in The Village Players? Maybe you thought, "They don't need me", or "I don't know how to do anything they need done." BUT we always need you and we will teach you whatever you are interested in learning. Want to work backstage, on the crew, in lighting? Want to help produce this newsletter? Want to work on our website? Want to be part of the fund-raising committee, or the building committee? How about the nominating committee? Maybe the membership committee? We can teach you what you need to know. All you need to bring is your interest and commitment to the group. If you have these two things, please contact Carol Bense at cwbense@roadrunner.com or call me at 569-1396 and let me know your interests.

A HARD WINTER FOR EVERYONE AND PARKING LOT ISSUES

by Carol Bense

Winter was hard on all of us this year, but the handicapped ramp at the theater took a particularly difficult blow. A giant cascade of ice slid off the roof bringing down the fire escape onto the air conditioning compressors and the ramp. Tim Brown brought over his crane and was able to pull the fire escape off the ramp and compressors, and several of our board members cleared the snow and ice from the ramp so that it is useable, but the ramp was badly damaged, and the compressors will also need repair.

As you may know, the parking lot next to our building belongs to Fairpoint Communications. For years we have used it to provide access to our handicap ramp, but some legal issues have arisen and Fairpoint can no longer allow us to park there at any time, or to access our handicap ramp through the parking lot. We are in the process of working out a solution which will probably involve creating access to the ramp from the left side of our building. More on that when it is more firmly planned.

Please, do not park in the Fairpoint lot for any reason. You may be ticketed and towed if you do.
