Coming soon to Village Players Theater:

In this hilarious Christmas classic, a couple struggling to put on a church Christmas pageant is faced with casting the Herdman kids - probably the most inventively awful kids in history. You won't believe the mayhem - and the fun - when the Herdmans collide with the Christmas story head on!

Performances: December 14 & 15 at 7:30 pm and
December 16 at 2:00 pm

Tickets available online at www.village-players.com or at Black's Paper and Gifts, Main Street, Wolfeboro.

Director's Note

"Hey Jay, it's your turn to direct."

"Swell! OK. Let's find a show."

I have done deep meaningful shows in the past but this time I wanted to dig deeper. I wanted to do a show with history. A show that tugs at the heart strings. A show that I could feel a true connection to. What better than a show about the temperance movement?

The Drunkard ticked all the boxes. The longest running show in history, The Drunkard was first performed in 1844 and has run somewhere ever since. It was originally performed at venues to entertain and preach at the same time (hoping no one would realize it). I have chosen to take the sober, preachy road. I have done my best to remove all the humor from the production because I feel the temperance movement was a very important part of our history and should be taken very seriously.

Now I ask you to sit back and learn a little history. While you are learning, feel free to boo the villain and cheer for our hero. Thanks for coming and "Have Another Drink..."

Special Thanks to:
