What's Next

Special Fund Raiser in cooperation with Granite VNA in late May

Dying With Laughter

A set of short plays written by Jay MacNamee which deal with end of life issues with warmth and humor.

Directed by several Village Players.

Coming in early August this summer

Ladies in Lingerie

A spoof of the typical mystery genre. Think Agatha Christie with a twist. Lots of laughs as the actors are picked off one by one.

Directed by Russ Ellis

And our fall musical this year is

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

A wonderful musical, winner of a Tony Award for best musical, and a great family theater experience.

Directed by Kathleen Hill and Paul Stewart

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Wow! First, I would like to take a moment to thank you for coming to the show. It has been a crazy couple of years. Farce of Nature is my way of getting back to what I love and what I miss..... Theater and Friends! I almost said “get back to normal” but referring to this experience as normal is so far from the truth.

Once again I have selected a show that is going to make everyone stop and ask, “what have I done with my life?” “What am I going to do next?” How can I be more like these characters?” If any of these questions are in your head .....I strongly suggest therapy. This show will not make you think for one second . I chose this show to give everyone a chance to let the outside world disappear for a couple hours.

I need to laugh and hopefully this show will do the same for you.

Please sit back, relax and smile. Welcome to The Reel “Em Inn.....Now ”Shut up and Fish!”

Jay Sydow, Director
